Dear Mrs. Smith:

I have thought much about you since I left there. I have told several teachers about you.

Your opening exercises pleased me so much and I was especially interested in that story you were reading to the children. I mean the one that was not only a story, but at the same time taught manners and morals. Will you please send me the name, title and author of the book and the publisher of same? I shall be very grateful.

I wish to express my appreciation of your whole-hearted cooperation and most of all, of your splendid womanhood.

With my very best wishes for you in your school work, and with kindest personal regards, I am

Yours very sincerely,

Gertrude Walter
State Rural Supervisor.

Your efforts contributed definitely to the outstanding results achieved. Our thanks and appreciation go to you and all of your associates in the stake and wards who participated in this truly great accomplishment.
