1853-7, Immigration/Emigration to Utah—Ships and Companies

1853

The interests of the Perpetual Emigrating Fund were cared for under Apostle Richard's agency, so much so that up to January, 1852, 1,410 pounds of sterling had been donated, and in the two ships which sailed January 10, 1852, two hundred and fifty-one persons were sent out requiring above 1,000 pounds more than had been donated, which extra outlay was supplied in the meantime by Apostle Richards. This was the first operation with the Perpetual Emigrating Fund, and it required much careful thought and wise deliberation to adopt plans that would carry this branch of the emigration properly through to the Valley. It was also the first time arrangements had been made before leaving Liverpool. Never before had such a journey been undertaken by so large a number of people with such limited resources.

During the year 1853, several companies of non-English speaking Saints passed through Liverpool. The first one from the Scandinavian Mission numbered two hundred and ninety seven souls and was reshipped at Liverpool on board the Forest Monarch January 16th, under the direction of Willard Snow, then president of the Scandinavian Mission. Donations to the Perpetual Emigrating Fund having been commenced in Scandinavia, particularly in Denmark, the sum of 136 pds. 15s 6d was appropriated during Elder Willard Snow's presidency, for the assistance of a number of those who sailed On the Forest Monarch. The next company from the continent was seventeen persons from the German Mission, who sailed from Liverpool in August and September 1853. These were the first Latter-day Saints emigrating to Zion from any of those countries.

LEGEND

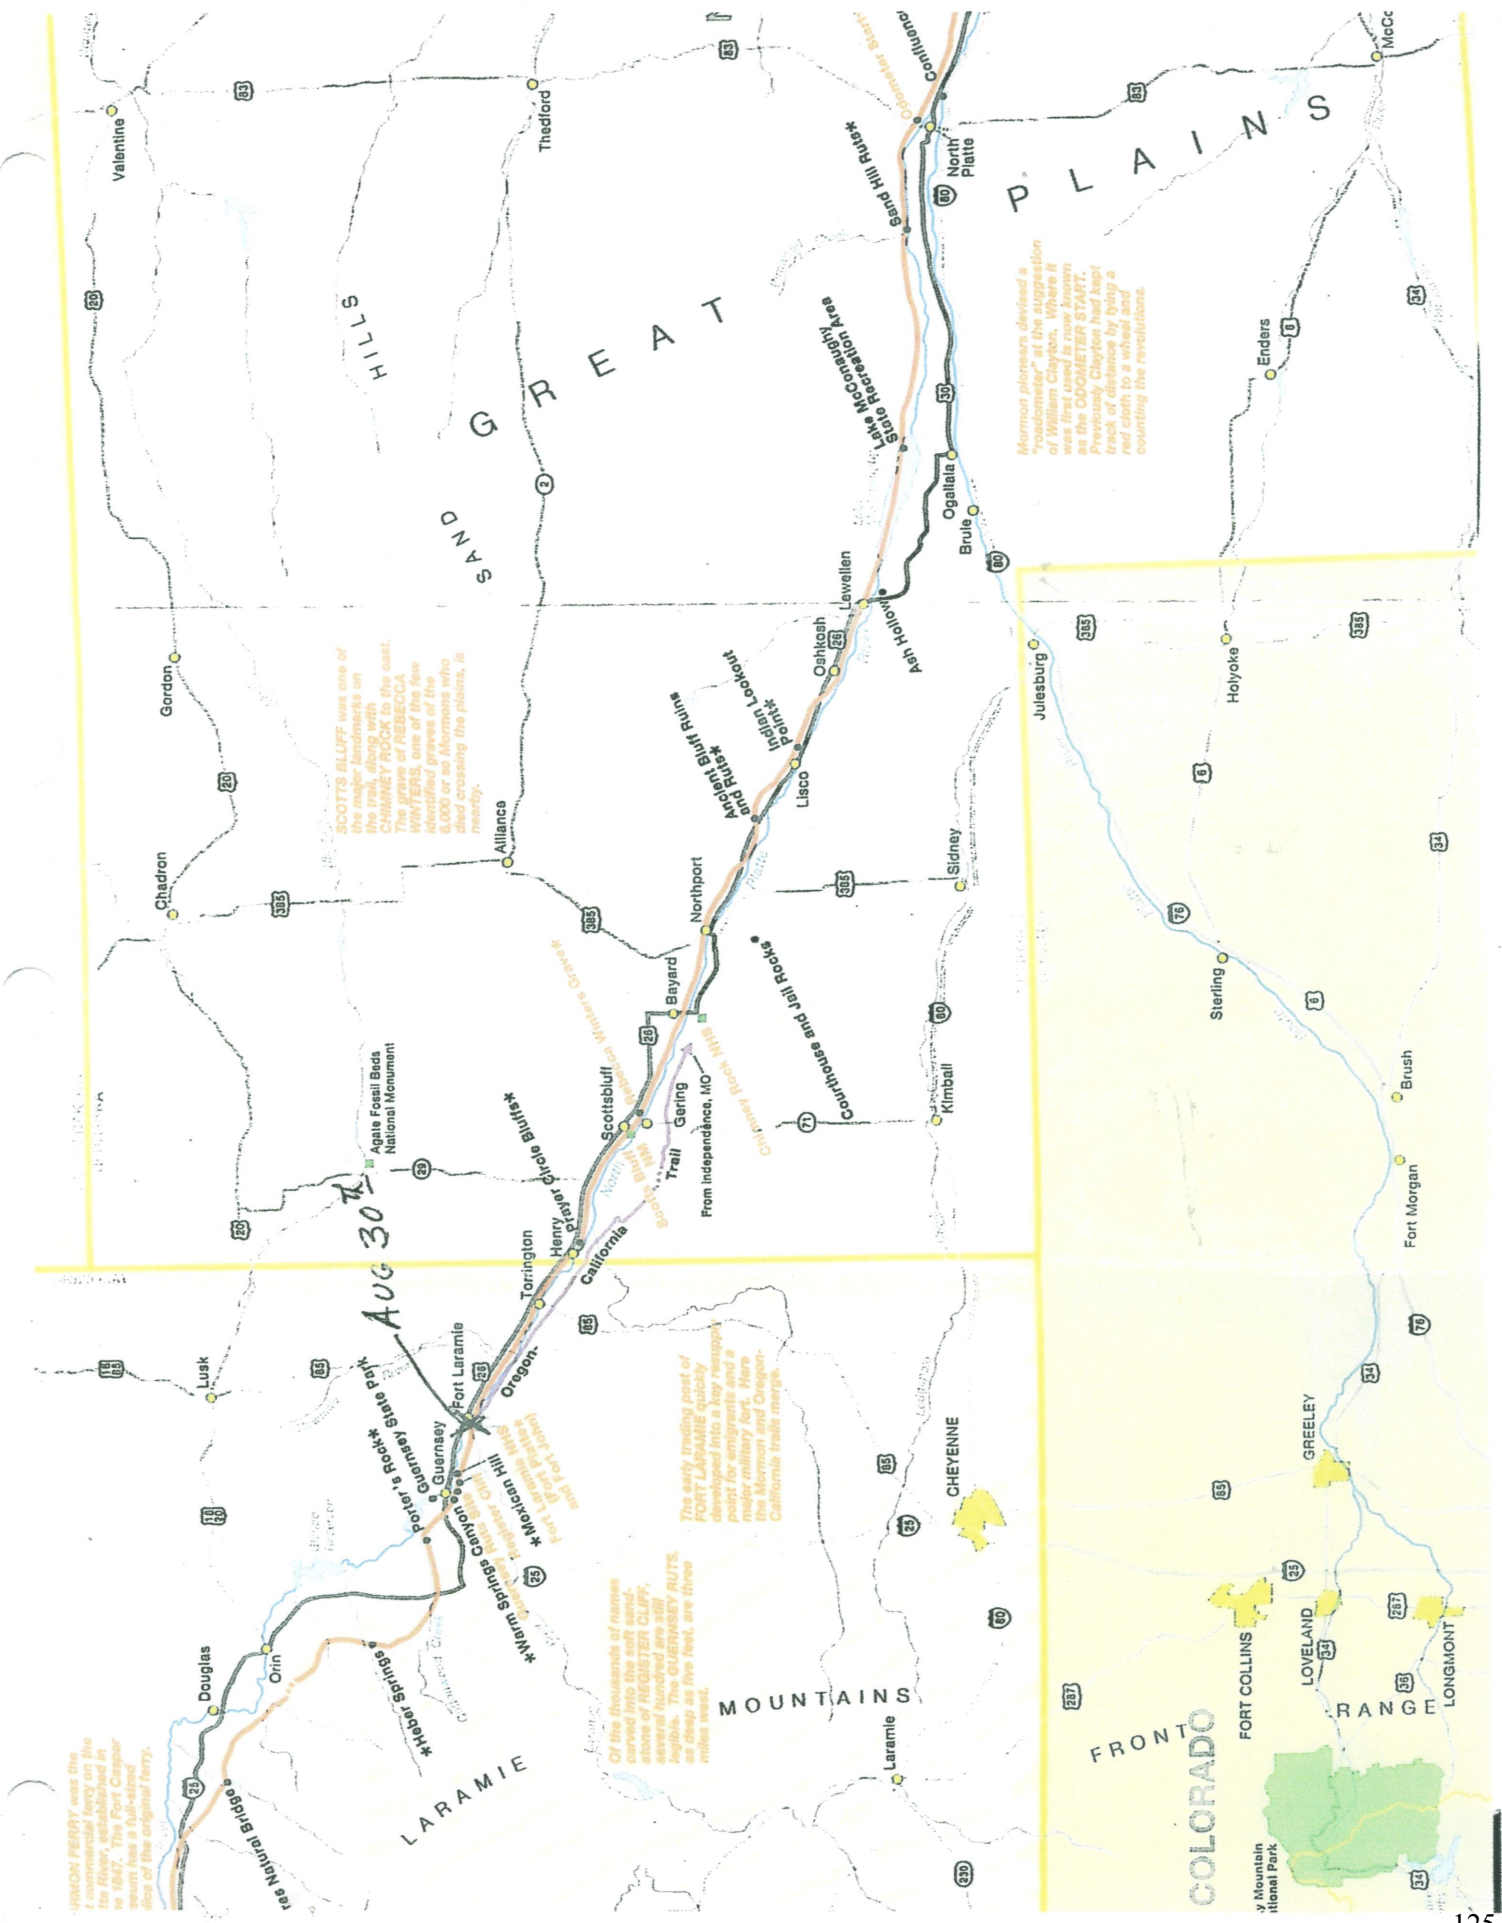

- Mormon Trail, pioneer route (no ruins)
- Mormon Trail, pioneer route (visible ruins)

OCT 5th

OCT 16th

RAMON FERRY was the first bridge across the river, established in 1827. The Fort Caspar ruins has a full-sized replica of the original ferry.

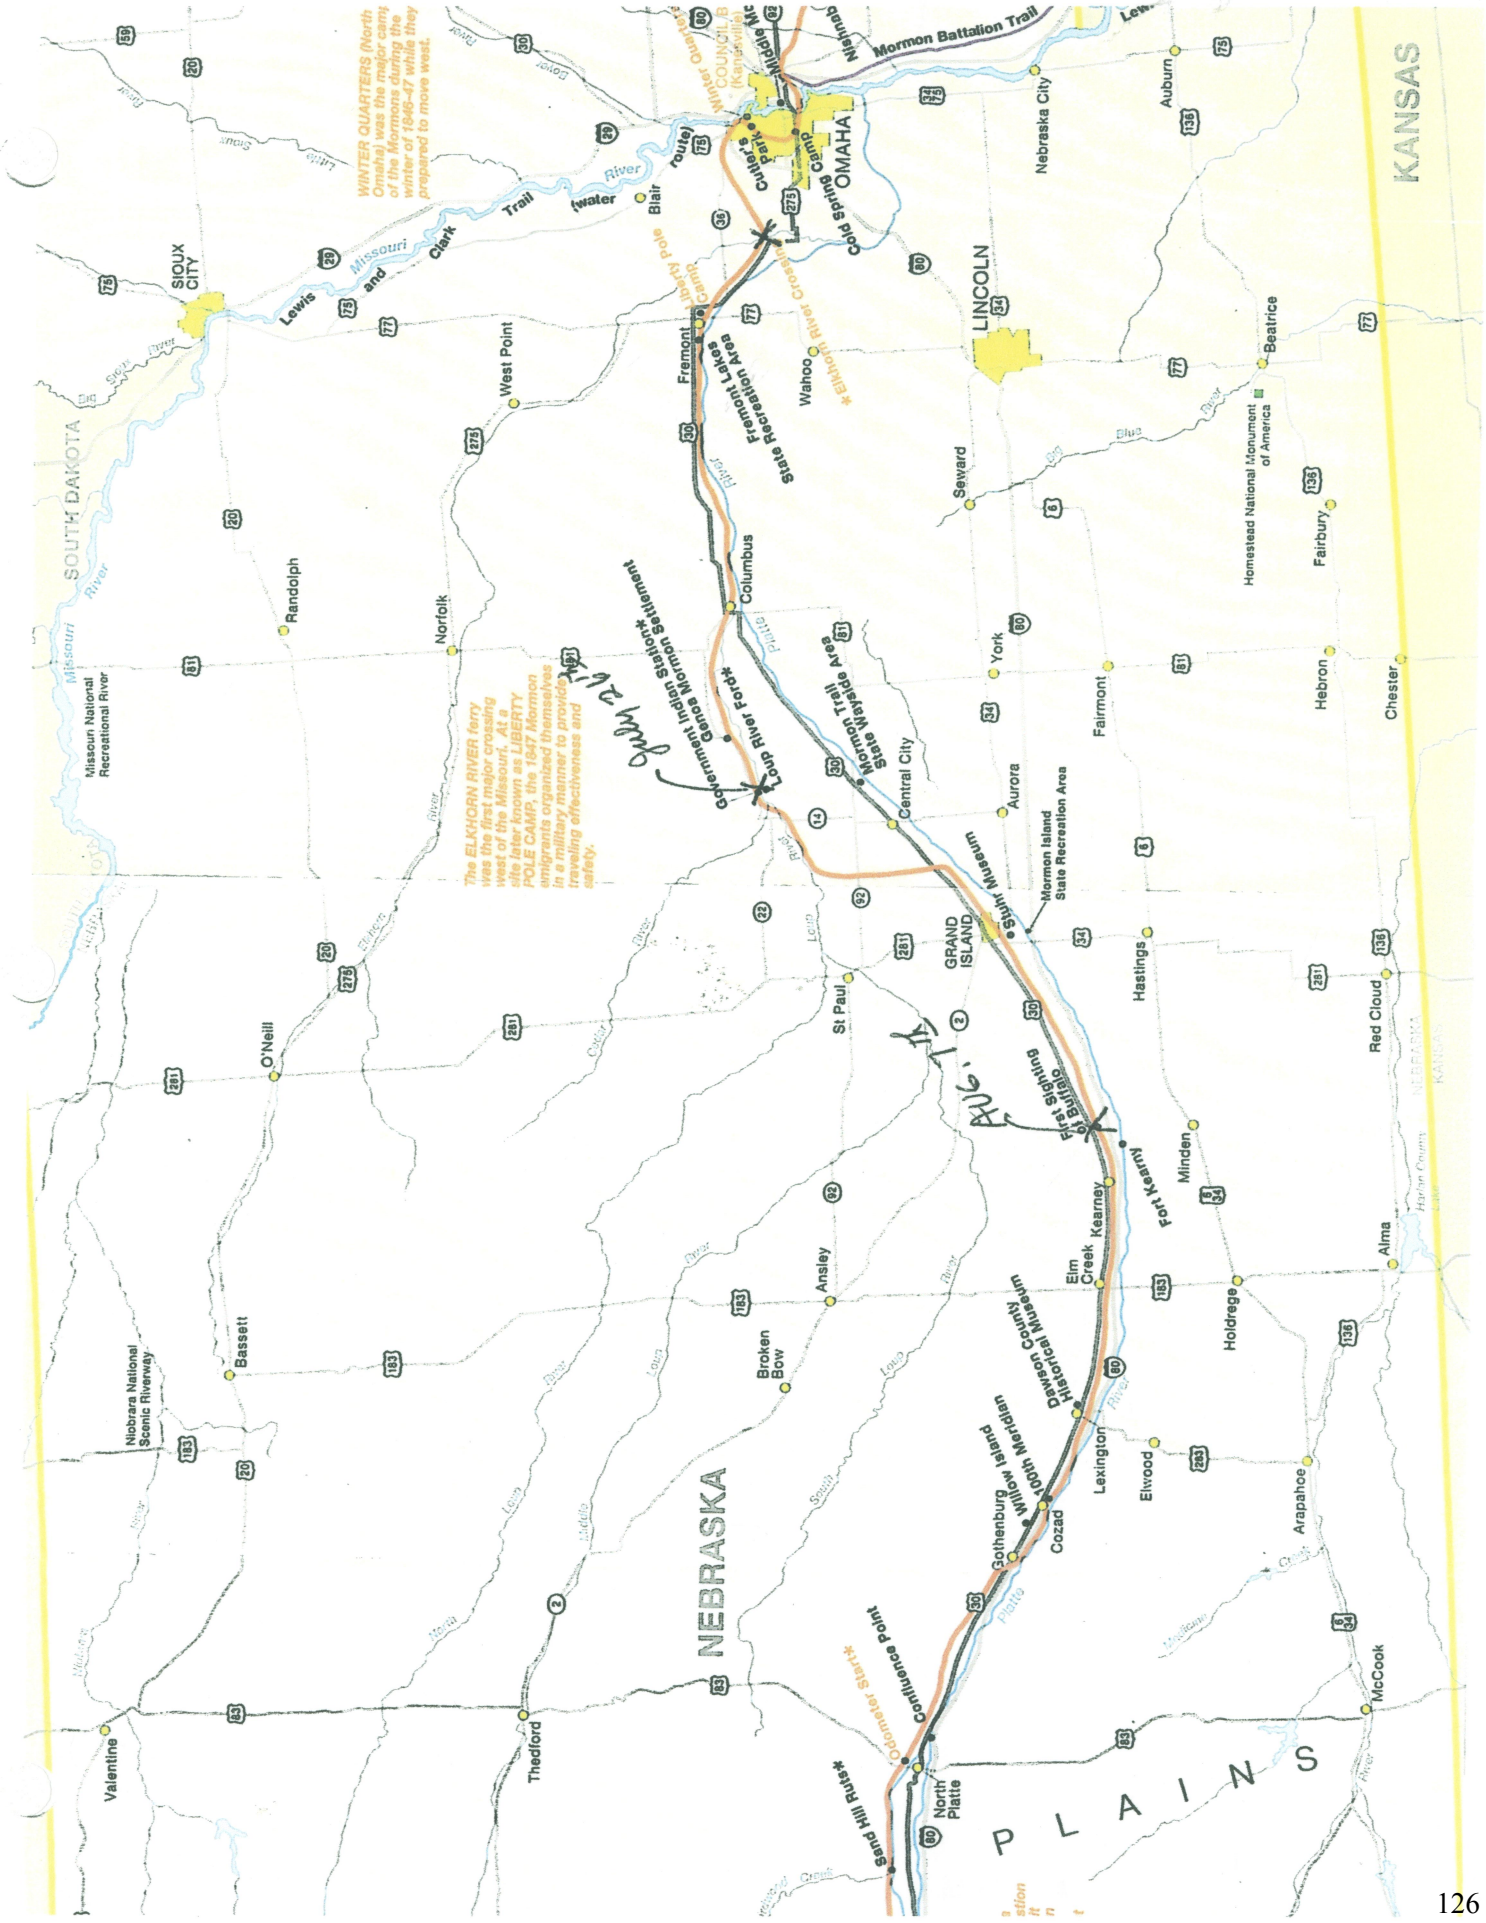

SCOTTS BLUFF was one of the major landmarks on the trail, along with CHIMNEY ROCK to the east. The grave of REBECCA WINTERS, one of the few identified graves of the 6,000 or so Mormons who died crossing the plains, is nearby.

Of the thousands of names carved into the sandstone of REGISTER CLIFFS, several hundred are still legible. The GUERNSEY RUINS, as deep as five feet, are three miles west.

The early trading post of FORT LARAMIE quickly developed into a key resupply point for emigrants and a major military AC. Here the Mormon and Oregon-California trails meet.

Mormon pioneers devised a "roadometer" at the suggestion of William Clayton. Where it was first used is now known as the COOPER'S STAIR. The roadometer was a large wheel with a red cloth to a wheel and counting the revolutions.

AUG 30 1846

WINTER QUARTERS (North Omaha) was the major camp of the Mormons during the winter of 1846-47 while they prepared to move west.

The ELKHORN RIVER ferry was the first bridge crossing west of the Missouri. At a site later known as LIBERTY POLE CAMP, the 1847 Mormon emigrants organized themselves in a military manner to provide traveling effectiveness and safety.

Patriarchal Blessing of THOMAS X SMITH

Logan, Utah
October 23, 1868

(A patriarchal blessing given by Charles W. Hyde, Patriarch, upon the head of Thomas X Smith, son of George & Patience Smith, born December 25, 1828, in Stanbridge, Bedfordshire, England)

Thomas, I place my hands on your head and seal on you a patriarchal blessing. Thou wast chosen to come here to do a great and mighty work in this kingdom. You shall proclaim the gospel in due time as with the sound of a trumpet. You shall have great faith to do any miracle, to heal the sick, cast out devils, and open prisons. Though mountain waves shall beat against you, you shall have power over the winds and waves of the sea. The Father has given his angels charge over you that you may not fall, you shall bring many to Zion with songs of great joy. Thou art of Jacob, with a right to the fullness of the Priesthood, with wives, and a great kingdom over the earth. You are a lawful heir to the Covenant God made with Abraham and his posterity after him. You shall behold Zion redeemed in peace and the glory of God shine upon her. You shall be the means of redeeming your dead. You shall sit in council with Adam, and with all the Holy Prophets. You shall walk in white with your Redeemer and all those who have been given to Jesus out of the world. It is your privilege to reign upon the earth a thousand years, and shall be changed at the coming of the Savior. These blessings I seal upon your head with crowns of glory and eternal lives in all your Father's household, forever and ever, Amen.

Charles W. Hyde, Patriarch

Patriarchal Blessing of MARGARET GURNEY SMITH

Logan, Utah
October 23, 1868

(A patriarchal blessing by C. W. Hyde upon the head of Margaret Gurney Smith, daughter of William & Hannah Sear Gurney, born September 29, 1830, in Stanbridge, Bedfordshire, England)

Margaret, I place my hands upon your head and seal on you a patriarchal blessing. As the beloved of the Father, thou hast desired many things of the Lord your God. All things shall be revealed to you in an hour when you think not. Thou shalt have visions and dreams, and the ministering of angels. Your last days shall be your best days. Thou shalt have faith to heal the sick, and order your house in righteousness. You shall entertain angels unawares, and shall teach many that shall come to Zion; they shall present unto you many gifts.

You shall behold the destruction of nations, kindred, tongues, and people, and you will rejoice that you have a mountain home among the Saints. Thou art a daughter of Ephraim, with a right to the fullness of the Priesthood, with thy companion, and have a kingdom forever and ever. It is your privilege to stand on the earth at the coming of the Savior and all His saints with Him, and redeem your progenitors till you are satisfied. You shall sit in council with Adam, your Father. These blessings I seal upon your head with eternal lives, with all thy Father's household, for ever and ever, Amen.

A. W. Hyde, Patriarch

Patriarchal Blessing of ANN HOWE SMITH

Logan Utah
November 22, 1921

A blessing given by Joseph A Quibell upon the head of Annie Howe Smith, daughter of Thomas Howe and Anna Masters, born 29th of November 1850 at Sutton Warwick, England.

Dear Sister Annie, In the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the authority of the Holy Priesthood, I place my hands upon your head to confer and seal upon you a patriarchal blessing, that you have so long desired to receive under my hands. Now sister Annie I bless you that you may be comforted and strengthened in your faith and in your desire to serve the Lord in righteousness and in truth. Now, behold, I say unto thee that the Lord loveth thee from before the foundation of the earth and hath appointed thee thy mission here in mortality when the fullness of the gospel has been restored to the earth, and thou art indeed and in truth a savior upon Mt. Zion. Unto this end was thy mission appointed thee when the morning stars sang together and the sons and daughters of God shouted for joy, and the God in whom thou trusteth, even the God of thy fathers Abraham, Isaac and Jacob shall never leave thee forsaken for thou art an heir to all the blessings of the new and everlasting covenant, thy sex can enjoy.

Thy posterity shall do thee honor as a mother in Israel. Thou shalt not be tempted more than thou art able to bear. Continue to put thy trust in the Holy One of Israel, who shall prepare thy way before thee, thy faith shall not falter as thy years increase, but thy light shall grow brighter and brighter unto the perfect day. Continue in earnestness before the Lord and he will prepare thy way before that thou shalt not hunger nor thirst, except for righteousness, for the Lord is pleased with thy life and with thy devotion to His work in the interest of the living and of the dead. Thy name shall be had in remembrance by many of thy sex and thou shalt, with thy beloved companion, rule and reign with him in the house of Israel forever. Thy posterity after thee shall become saviors upon Mt. Zion and thou shalt never be moved from thy steadfastness, but shall endure to the end, and shall obtain a crown of righteousness which the Lord thy God shall give unto thee and to all who love His appearing.

Because of thy lineage, which is of the house of Israel, of the tribe of Joseph through the loins of Ephraim, thou hast, to these many years, and shall from time to time, be a savior to the living and to the dead. To this end I bless thee and say unto thee be comforted for the Lord thy God shall never leave nor forsake thee. Peace shall be in thy habitation, and the Lord shall ever be near thee to warn and forewarn thee of approaching difficulties that are strewn in thy path.

I seal thee up against the power of the destroyer, and say unto thee for thy comfort, that thou shalt not fall nor falter when trials come into thy path and by the authority of the holy priesthood and in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, I seal this blessing upon thee for thy comfort, even so, Amen

Joseph A. Quibell, Patriarch

Month since I left you and your dear mother and if I have to stop to see them it will soon be over and I do not know how long I will have to stop but I would like to stay until they had me place over we will say you can return this is what I would like to do if you will try and be satisfied I would like to do as your mother wish for. We believe she was taken from you if you should see Mrs. Russell give my kind regards to him tell him I am well and hope he is the same then is quite a number going out from this corner since this season if all is well and may be that some of them will find their way to your country if they do they will sure to come and see you and if they do treat them well they treat me with the greatest of kindness Brother. William Doughty and wife if they come up before I get home treat them as well as you can they are good faithful letters say I will see you and if Thomas wants some furniture come on paper. Anging don in the fall he will do it. Removable

Dear children

I received your kind and welcome letter it is so nice when I come back from my visiting the church in Stanton. So much and was glad to hear from you and that you are all well I am well and have been all winter and for this I feel thankful to our merciful father for this is a great blessing to have good health and hope that you will continue to have it until I return home you say that Bro. Pickles has had one of his daughters die recently I am that in the paper this is a great trial for him this makes him see me wife and two children and it makes me three me wife and two grand children this is a trial for us both but I hope the Lord will give us strength to have up under it and acknowledge his hand in all we have to put through in regards your staying in the store that is very low wages for you I should think they could afford to give you a little more

March 28/81

but if they cannot do it try and get a long the best you can dont know how much Bunnings you do may be they cannot afford to give you any more you must look at all things and take into consideration all these things it is a more business and if you can but hope with it until I return home do so it is not much but were can you get more that is the next thing to consider I dont know where you can get a little stone pay to help the family a long he contyted if you can and save with it and I hope the Lord will open your many and that you will be able to get the things that you need for your comfort and all will work out for your good. I wrote Letter to the Morgan when I wrote to Thomas B. Gordon I received his Letter and money and I return him thank for it and hope the Lord will help him for it I am his uncle a little while ago and stay with him all night he has been Baptized and feel well and his blind daughter is a gang to be Baptized if she is not already been there is a pen that will receive the truth but not many the Minds of the people are so dark that they will not see and when we tell them to watch the signs of the times they do know ledge that is so but will not hear the gospel of the son of god and here we have to labor and lift up our voices and proclaim the truth as did noah did when he was upon the earth may be that we will not have to labor as long as he did but never less years has said as it was in the days of Noah so it will be in the days of the coming of the son of man so you see we have to keep on laboring in this land and you in that and if the Lord will I am sure we will have a happy meeting you say that Bp. Harkley is coming here this evening I have not heard any thing of it yet I have not seen him since we left each other after we got to Limerick I wrote him a letter the other day but have not received any answer yet I hope that you will not think it long before I return home try and board out your clothes the best you can and the time will soon pass and when I will see you again it will soon be true

Dear Children

it is with Pleasure that I sit down and write you a few lines to let you know that I am still alive and feel better then I have done for sometime and the folks are all well at Present. Dave (son) has not been home for nearly three Months he did not do much the first month that he was Out but since there he has been fairly well I think he will have a good run this Season. Patience (daughter) has been laid off for the last three weeks and it will be three months more before she will have any work so you that pulls her back and she dont feel very well ever it but this She must put up with. we are having a beautiful rain to day it will make the farmers feel well for there was lots of grain that would not have come up untill it was matured but now it will be all right and the Beets would not have come if there had not been rain there Seems to be a worm that is eating the Beets when the .. come up so it does not look very well for the Beet crop this season at present but we hope for the best how are you getting along are you doing any canning this season we have Just begun putting in the foundation of our Musement Hall for the fourth Ward (the ward he is Bishop of) but how we will be able to finish it that is another thing but if we are united we will acomplish it and if we are not we will not do it we will be better of when it is completed then when we started it both Spiritual and temperal well things in Logan are moving about as usual no excitment at present there is Quite a nmuber that have got the whoping cough and Some that have the small pox but non fatil as I Know of Fanny (daughter) is grunting around at present but I think it will be much longer before she is sick I hope she will get all right well I dont Know that there is much more to tell you at this time we had our ward Conferance last Sunday and had very good time and as a general thing the peopel feel well and enjoying the spirit of the Lord I hope the Spirit of the Lord will be with you to comfort you through the Fourney of life so that you may do your duty in your Spheir and calling dont neglect your prayers and other duties that wupon you for if are looking to much after the things of this World and loose the Spirit of the Lord we will go into darkness then at the latter end what at disapointment there well be. so I say to you and myself let us do what we can for the Building up of the Kingdom of god upon the Earth and the Lord will Bless us in this life to come I have been fifty five years in this work and I Know that this is the work of the Lordand not the work man if I did not Know it for myself do you think I try to decive you But this testemony will not do for you but you must get one for yourself and not live it for your father and then you must teach it ot your children that they may get a testemony for themselvs and so it goes on from one generation to another it has been so from the days of Adam until the present time that there is a true and a living God and that is the being that reveled himself to the Prophet Joseph Smith and Showed him the plan of Salvation for the whole human family and hav thankful that I am to live in this dispecion of th fulness of time when he has Spoken to mankind upon the earth. May God bless you My dear children with his spirit and keep you in the faith of the gospel you cannot expect that I will be with you agreat deal onger but the little time I have left I hope it will be profetable to me at least good Buy for the Present and god Bless you

Smith, Thomas X., Bishop of Fourth Ward, Logan, Cache Stake, was the son of George Smith and Patience Timpson, and was born Dec. 25, 1828, at Eaton Bray, Bedfordshire, England. He was baptised March 28, 1849, by John Mead, and was ordained a Deacon by Benjamin Johnson; later he became president of the Eaton branch. In 1853 he sailed for America, on board the ship "Falcon," and crossed the plains in an ox-train, arriving in Salt Lake valley after a very hard and trying journey. Bro. Smith writes: "My wife was very sick for several weeks after our arrival in the Valley, having been confined with a child en route over the plains. We felt that we were strangers in a strange land, but we knew that the Lord was with us. I soon found employment with Dr. Willard Richards, for whom I worked till his death, when I went to Farmington, Davis county, and took charge of his grist and saw-mill. While at Farmington I was ordained a Seventy. After living in Farmington for about two years, I moved to Logan, Cache county, where I was in 1855-56, during the "grasshopper war," and did all in my power to check the damage being done. Before we were entirely through fighting grasshoppers we had to meet the United States army, in what is known as the "Utah war." At an early day I was chosen as a president of the 64th quorum of Seventy. When Logan city was divided into four Wards, I was called to preside as Bishop of the Fourth Ward, and was later ordained a High Priest and Bishop by Prest. Geo. Q. Cannon. In 1880 I went on a mission to England, where I labored principally in the Nottingham and Manchester conferences, serving as president of the latter. My wife died Sept. 23, 1880, leaving a large family to be cared for, and so I was honorably released and returned to Logan in 1881. When Presidents Chas. O. Card and Thos. E. Ricks first went to Canada, I accompanied them and assisted in doing the first plowing ever done in Alberta, where so many of the Saints have since located. For three terms I served as a city councilman in Logan, and have also held many other civil positions.[p.78] I have had three wives, two of whom are living, and I am the father of twenty-two children, six of whom are dead." Bishop Smith was one of those unassuming men who believed rather in deeds than words, and was respected by all classes as a man of sterling worth. His death occurred in Logan early in 1907.

A BRIEF HISTORY OF ANNIE HOWE SMITH

by daughter, Patience Smith Adams

Annie Howe Smith, daughter of Thomas and Hannah Masters Howe was born November 29, 1850, in Sutton Warick, England.

At the age of fourteen she worked in a lace factory, walking three miles each way. Very often girls who worked there would be without lunch or money and she would share her lunch with them.

Missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints found the Howe family and converted them. Moses Thatcher, one of the missionaries, from Logan, Utah, helped them decide to come to Utah.

They left England with the family of five children (one child had died before this time) and crossed the Atlantic in the spring of 1867, being seven weeks en route to America.¹ John McCraw and Fredrick C. Anderson were in charge of the company. The weather was rough and during a terrible storm Annie went on deck alone, thrilled with the sight of the high waves. The Captain, knowing she did not realize the danger, took hold of her, almost frightening her to death, and sent her below. One saddening incident occurred when a child of one family died and was buried in the sea.

After arriving in America the family crossed the plains in covered wagons to Utah. The Howe family settled in Salt Lake City for a time, and were active in the church. Thomas worked for President Wilford Woodruff for a time, and later the family moved to American Fork to help settle that community. At that time Annie was allowed to come to Logan to live with the Moses Thatcher family, where she stayed for six months. These people helped her to overcome homesickness, and along with the Baugh and Quinney families, who had been friends in England, she soon had many friends. She was a friendly and out-going person who loved people. She didn't have an opportunity for much formal schooling as her parents did not have the necessary finances.

Church was held in the "Old Hall" which was on the corner of Main and First North Streets in Logan. Thomas X Smith was the bishop of that very first Fourth Ward. Later she was told that he had remarked to a man next to him, on the first day that she attended church, "That girl coming in the door is going to be my wife." This was made a fact when in 1869 they were married in the Endowment House in Salt Lake City. It was, at that time, a three day journey from Logan and was made in a wagon.

Annie was his second wife and the mother of eleven children, four of whom died before reaching adulthood. One of these children lived for six weeks after falling into the fireplace from her high-chair. She never did get over the suffering this child endured for six weeks before her death.

When she had four living children her husband was called on a mission to England. She worked hard at anything she could get to support her family. At this same time his first wife, Margaret, died and left ten children. Since it was impossible for him to return home quickly he remained in the mission field to finish his mission.

Even though some of the children in this first family were older than Annie she did everything in her power to help them. Such things as curing the pork, rendering the lard, and sending milk and vegetables to them, were among a few.

She lived, at that time, with her four children, in a one room house. It was so arranged and well kept that her husband called it a "little palace." Later he built a five room house on the corner of fifth north and second east where she lived for the remainder of her life. She planted a Virginia Creeper vine at the west corner of the porch which grew to make a cozy corner for play and work. Their lot was one quarter of the block so they had room for a good garden, fruit trees, horses, cows, pigs and chickens. She had a good rock well with good water, and in the summer after churning would put the butter in a bucket and fasten it to the top of the well for coolness.

Annie had many hardships, as did most pioneers, as she raised her family, but she was faithful and active in the church serving as a Relief Society Teacher for most of her life. She supported her husband with his work as a bishop. Many times she would divide what flour she had with someone who she knew was in need. Her children were sent with buckets of milk to many families in need. With her Relief Society companion she went to homes where there was sickness, cleaned for them and helped in many other ways. She did her part in cleaning the church building every time, too.

They were not without pleasure and fun. With her friends she would go to various homes to rug and quilting bees. They would stay all day, have dinner together, and would leave in time to be home and have supper ready for the family. Children who were not in school were included in these parties, and had their fun, too.

When her family was grown and after her husband's death she did endowment work for many people. Her youngest daughter, Jennie Stoddard, died from the "flu" in 1917, and she helped another daughter, Marie Kimball, raise the children, Cleve and Ruth, whose father worked on the railroad and could not be home to care for them.

Her husband died January 1, 1907.

She always testified to the truthfulness of the gospel and told her children to live lives of worthiness, and to heed the counsel of those in authority. Her advice was to speak good of all people, and the church, and polygamy—or to say nothing. No tribulation, however severe, dampened her zeal. Nothing embittered or disturbed her faith. She died November 16, 1925, at the home of her daughter Fannie Goodsell, leaving two sons and four daughters and seventeen grandchildren.

These two separate DUP meeting minutes were written in the back of an "LDS Family Record Book" in the handwriting of (possibly) Hazel Adams with other histories and records in the handwriting of Patience Smith Adams. In 2009 Francine K. Medrano has typed them as they appear.

Sept. 21, 1926

The Thomas X Smith Camp, Daughters of Utah Pioneers, met at the home of Pres. Fanny Goodsell. Bro. Orson Smith gave a talk on the life of his father. He said his father was a pioneer in very deed. The pioneers surely paid the price for the beautiful land we enjoy today. Thomas X Smith came from England where there were so many Smiths that he must have some means of keeping his name and mail separate. He inserted the letter X into his name. He was born in Eng. in the year 1828 (Dec. 25). He joined the church March 19, 1849. His boyhood days were spent in England. He married Margaret Gurney. After joining the Latter Day Saint Church his neighbors, friends and his family would have nothing to do with him. He left all behind and came to America. He crossed the plains in John Brown's company, with Ox teams. Mr. Smith did not know how to handle oxen, as he had had no experience. His profession had been braiding straw for hats. All of these trials seemed only to strengthen the faith of Bro. Smith and his fellow church members.

The company arrived in Salt Lake City Oct. 1st, 1853. The time spent on the trip covered between 8 and 9 months. The travel was mostly over trackless plains, and the sea. The people had to cook their meals over camp-fires and they had to adapt themselves to entirely new modes of living.

When Johnson's Army made its raid on Salt Lake City the people had no weapons with which to defend themselves. Brother Smith acted a scout for the pioneers during this time and when he returned his clothes were in tatters. When the army arrived the pioneers packed up everything and went as far as Clover Creek (almost of Payson) never doubting that the Lord would protect them.

Bro. Smith moved to Logan in the fall of 1859. They took residence on 3rd West and (space left blank). That first winter the snow fell 3 ft. deep on the level and lasted 6 months. The children slept in a wagon box at the end of the house.

Bro. Smith was called to act as Bishop in 1861. He served 46 years and 6 months. He filled a mission to England in 1880. He also helped build roads and the Temple, and in general helped build the community.

After arriving in Utah, Bro. Smith was married to Annie Howe in the year 1868 in the Salt Lake City Endowment House. There were 11 children resulted from this union. Bro. Smith was the father of 11 children by his first wife, Margaret Gurney. Making a total of 22 children in the Thomas X Smith family.

Brother Smith died on Jan. 1st, 1907 at Logan, Utah. He died at his home at 191 East 5th North.

The History of Bro. Smith is like the history of every pioneer man and woman who entered Utah at that time. Bro. Smith like most other pioneer man was a giant in strength, never complained, was a congenial companion, and never by an act would hurt anyone. His testimony was so truly burned into his soul that he would surely have lain down his life for the gospel.

April 15th, 1929.

The Thomas X Smith Camp of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers met at the home of daughter Marie Smith Kimball, on Monday April 15 at 2:30 P.M. With Captain Fanny Goodsell presiding and conducting. Sister Goodsell is another daughter of Bro. Smith. This meeting was held in his honor.

Singing, Utah the Star of the West

Prayer, Chaplin Caroline Sorenson

Roll call showed 20 present and 10 visitors.

The following program was carried out by children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of Thomas X Smith who served as Bishop of the Logan 4th Ward for 46 years and 6 months and for whom this camp was named.

A deut was sung by Miss Ella and Miss Sarah Smith great-granddaughters.

A talk on the Life History of Thomas X Smith was given by P.V. Cardon, a grandson. He said it was a little hard to speak on one's own progenitors as oft time we are apt to go to far. He felt that his grandfather had played his part in helping to carry on in a new world.

P.V. Cardon also said:

He always looked upon him as a Santa Claus as he was born on Christmas day, "so he will always be associated in my mind with that day."

"Then I think of him in the "old world" braiding hats as that was his trade before coming here for the Gospel's sake. He had his heart set upon coming to the Valleys of the Mts. to be under their protecting care. It must have been difficult to have left hat braiding and begun driving a yoke of oxen across the plains, because Bro. Smith had never seen an Ox team before. We can imagine some of the things with which he put up."

"One day the oxen teams paused for a while, while an elderly lady assisted in bringing my grandfather's 1st boy into the world. Namely Orson Smith, now living at Logan, Utah."

When the Smith's first arrived in the valley they lived in Farmington. They were very poor financially, living as best they could under those trying circumstances.

"Then I see him again a soldier helping near Johnson's Army."

"We also think of all the pioneers who were placed in that trying position. After traveling and enduring hardships to come to a place of refuge then almost as soon as arriving he was called to leave their families in a half starved condition to go and fight. They (the pioneers) moved as far south as Payson. There was much to tragedy when we think they prepared to burn their belongings rather than leave them to their enemies."

"I now see him as a real pioneer as he has adapted himself to conditions. He was always ready at any church call. He had gone through a lot for the Gospel's sake and so was ready and willing to put everything into it. I can see him now as he used to be with his 2 counselors, Bro. Morgan and Bro. Thompson, they seemed inseparable. Looking, today, at Sis. Mickelson and Sis. Stoddard, who knew him so well, reminds me of him. Of course he had his faults and failings, as all of us have, but still he and his counselors worked for 46 $\frac{1}{2}$ yrs. It isn't often we hear of as long a service as bishop.

"He also served as justice of the peace in later life. Took an active part in civic affairs of the city."

"I feel he must have been a good father and think his children had good mothers. That is why his children and grandchildren and great grand-children have respect for his memory."

"The last I remember was when six of his grandsons carried him to the church and to his grave where he now lays." "All the good things I remember of him stayed with me."

A piano solo was given by a granddaughter Alice Adams.

A reading by a greatgrand-daughter Joan Cardon.

A reading by a granddaughter Ruth Stoddard Kimball.

An original poem written by Mrs. Mattie B. Hanson in honor of T.X Smith when he had served as Bishop 46 years & 6 months. It was read by Mrs. Samantha Smith a daughter-in-law.

Sister Lucy S. Cardon, a daughter, said she wished to bear her testimony to the truth of what had been said and that the last thing her father said to them on his death-bed was that he hoped they would all remain faithful to the end.

Closing Song. Oh What Songs of the Heart.

Benediction: Sister Elizabeth Y. Stoddard.

BEETGROWERS CONFERENCE.

All Differences With Sugar Company Settled -- Police Troubles.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Cache County, Feb. 14.—A conference was held Thursday between David Eccles, president of the Logan Sugar Factory company, and President Thomas Irvine and other officers of the Cache Farmers' association. All the differences between the factory and the farmers were discussed to great length and perfect harmony was established. The concessions which the farmers asked for were as follows:

That the amount of seed shall not be more than 15 pounds to the acre.

That each community shall have the privilege of suggesting names from whom the sugar company shall select drill men.

That all beets shall be receipted for at the loading places, and that thereafter the farmers shall not be responsible for them.

That the Sugar company shall receive and care for all beets, between Oct. 15, and Nov. 30, whether or not cars are provided.

That the growers of beets shall have the privilege of buying pulp at the Lehi prices.

That the Sugar company shall not delay in furnishing drills.

Some of the above points were slightly modified, and were generally agreed to by Mr. Eccles. The executive committee of the Farmers' association has issued a recommendation that farmers sign contracts at $4.50 per ton.

The lecture of Prof. Walter Thomas Mills at the tabernacle Thursday evening was largely attended. His subject was "Socialism."

William Alway, of Wellsville, came to Logan today and told a long tale of trouble to Justice Thomas X. Smith. He alleges that Thomas P. Statham, of Wellsville, struck him on the arm with a rifle last Tuesday, and broke that member as well as otherwise mistreating him. A warrant was issued this afternoon and Sheriff Rigby left for Wellsville at once to arrest the offender.

Complaint was also made before Justice Thomas X. Smith by Hans K. Hansen of College, who alleges that his son-in-law, Orson Welsh, has recently threatened to kill him. Welsh was found to be lying ill in bed and his hearing was postponed for a few days. Welsh's wife recently brought suit for divorce on the ground of his infidelity to his marital obligations, and the present trouble is the outgrowth of that suit.

THE BRITISH MISSION.

FROM the Millennial Star of October 4, we learn that up to September, the number of Saints who have left the port of Liverpool for this country during the present year, is 1,479. Another company will leave on the 23d of the present month, which will probably make the total about 1,800. They were of the following nationalities: British, 607; Scandinavian, 758; (including twenty Icelanders) Swiss and German, 108; French 6. Quite a number of these have been assisted by means privately forwarded from friends in Utah, and some by the Perpetual Emigrating Fund.

Baptisms are still frequent in various parts of the British Mission. Elder Edward E. Brain reports thirty-four baptisms into the Church in Bristol Conference since the 1st of last May, and says that he with his brethren in that Conference had preached in upwards of thirty towns and villages.

A vigorous winter missionary campaign is urged upon the Elders, with a profuse distribution of tracts and pamphlets.

Elder C. W. Stayner reports a revival of good feeling and union in Nottingham, with manifestations of the power of God, the gift of tongues, interpretations, etc.

The Elders from Utah who sailed on the steamship Nevada, arrived on the 2nd of October, all in good health and spirits. Following are their appointments and also one release:

Elder H. A. Dixon, traveling elder in the Liverpool Conference, is released (on account of ill health) to return home with the company that will leave Liverpool October 23d, 1880.

Mosiah Booth is appointed a traveling elder in the Manchester Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder Thomas X. Smith.

Joseph Carlisle is appointed a traveling elder in the Manchester Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder Thomas X. Smith.

John R. Howard is appointed a traveling elder in the Nottingham Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder O. F. Hunter.

Joseph J. Giles is appointed a traveling elder in the Nottingham Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder O. F. Hunter.

John M. Bowen is appointed a traveling elder in the Welsh Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder J. R. Mathews.

E. H. LeCheminant is appointed a traveling Elder in the London Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder Samuel Roskelley.

Heber J. Romney is appointed a traveling elder in the London Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder Samuel Roskelley.

Charles F. Wilcox is appointed a traveling elder in the London Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder Samuel Roskelley.

Joseph S. Tingey is appointed a traveling elder in the Newcastle Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder W. R. Webb.

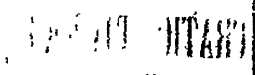

Gibson S. Condie is appointed a traveling elder in the Glasgow Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder D. C. Dunbar.

Wm. R. Jones is appointed a traveling elder in the Liverpool Conference, to labor under the direction of Elder John Donaldson.

GOVERNOR WELLS has appointed Bishop Thomas N. Smith as special commissioner to supervise Cache county's share of the Legislative road appropriation, with instructions to begin the work immediately. Mr. Smith had much experience in road making during pioneer days in Logan, and as the appointee had to be a Republican, probably no better choice could have been made. We trust that he will work in harmony with the county commissioners, as otherwise the road will not be completed, as the Legislative appropriation is nearly certain to prove insufficient.

In order to select the best route it would be well for the county commissioners to choose one or two men, and the business men one or two, to go over the route with Mr. Smith and aid him in making a selection. We believe that harmony will prevail, and that there will be union of effort on the part of all concerned.

HOPSON ON TRIAL FOR LIFE.

A Serious Case—Held to Answer Before The District Court.

Special Correspondence.

Logan, Dec. 1.—The preliminary hearing of William C. Hobson charged with the killing of James Lynch, near Cache Junction on the night of Nov. 1 last, was held before Justice Thomas X. Smith here today. Attorney W. W. Maughan representing the state and Attorney Winters of Pocatello, the defendant.

ADMITS THE KILLING.

Deputy Sheriff Joseph Belknap of Weber county, testified that Hobson had admitted that he had shot Lynch in the lumber car about two miles south of Cache Junction, that the two were in the car together when Lynch had fumbled in Hobson's clothes as if to take his watch. Hobson remonstrated with him and stepped away. Lynch then put his hand on his hip, made some remark about fixing Hobson when the latter pulled his gun and fired.

The defense took exception to this testimony on the ground that Hobson was at that time under arrest and the testimony was in a measure extorted from him.

Mr. Belknap gave some further testimony as to the direction the ball had taken in the body of Lynch and powder marks were found on his coat. The bullet had entered his left side about midway between the hips and armpit and had come out on the right side.

SAW TWO MEN IN CAR.

J. H. Parsons a brakeman on the O. S. L. railway had seen Lynch and another man presumably Hobson at Cache Junction on the night of Nov. 1, and later while going over the train from the caboose to the engine had seen the two men seated on the lumber in the lumber car. He could not identify Hobson as the man he had seen with Lynch.

DISCOVERED THE DEAD BODY.

Wm. McCarty, testified that while checking cars in the R. G. W. yard at Ogden Nov. 2, he had found the lumber car unsealed and while resealing it had discovered the body of Lynch, but had not inspected body, but had called the yard master who had entered car and examined it. J. H. Barker, Jr., had sold Lynch 10 cents worth of cheese on the night of the killing. Lynch had claimed that he only had 15 cents and wished to buy both crackers and cheese.

TESTIMONY CLOSED.

This practically closed the testimony. Defendant's attorney then moved that defendant be discharged on following grounds:

First.—No offense to the laws of Utah had been shown.

Second.—There had been no death proved.

Third.—There had been no assault or attempt to kill shown.

Fourth.—There was no evidence that the act had been committed in Utah.

THE PROSECUTION BEGINS.

The prosecution took the position that Hobson had acted very strangely for a man who had killed a man in self defense. He had left the train at Bingham without saying a word to anyone and taken a train for Pocatello and had there exchanged his pistol for another of smaller caliber and had remained perfectly silent in the matter until the officers had located him, from other sources of information, and that there was a reasonable presumption that the killing had not been done in self defense.

The judge held Hobson to answer to the district court and delivered him to the custody of the sheriff until that time.

PRIMARY OFFICERS TO REJOICE.

The stake officers of the Primary association will give a reception to all of the stake workers at the Fourth ward meetinghouse tomorrow. There will be a nice program, lunch will be served and the afternoon and evening spent in dancing and having a genuine good time.
