The Spacious and Comfortable Family Home in Bountiful

Great Grandfather Perrigrine Sessions first built this home for his wife Emmorett Sessions and their children. Our grandmother, Samantha Sessions, was one of those children. Another wife, by the name of Lucina Call and her children also lived here. When Emmorett got older, and Samantha had married our Grandfather, David Howe Smith, they lived here and took care of Emmorett until she passed away. Our mother Lucille and her brothers grew up here and I believe that the whole family really liked this home with it's three acres of fruit trees. When our mother, Lucille, was about ten years old, this home was lost to the family, and they moved to Logan, where she and her brothers finished growing up, becoming young adults, going to undergraduate college, marrying, and establishing their homes in various locations. This picture was taken in 2001. The original home has been remodeled and now contains four apartments.

In Loving Remembrance of

P. G. Sessions,

Died June 3, 1893

A precious one from us has gone
A voice we loved is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled.

God in His wisdom has recalled
The boon His love has given,
And though the body slumbers here
The soul is safe in heaven.

The Patty Sessions Academy, which she built in 1884 for her grandchildren and other Bountiful children. Patty is on the left wearing a black bonnet and holding a child. Her son Perrigrine, in vest and hat, stands in front of the doorway with four of his wives to his left. Courtesy of Kim Burningham.
